Security in the API Economy - A Panel Discussion with IDC and Layer7

Security the API Economy - A Panel Discussion with IDC and Broadcom

As the use of APIs continues to proliferate, API security has dramatically risen in importance - with no end in sight. In this engaging panel discussion Chris Rodriguez, IDC Security and Trust Analyst, and Shari Lava, Research Director, join Francois Lascelles, CTO of Layer7, as well as customers Telefonica and William Hill, and Federal partner Vista Ascent Solutions, to give their thoughts on the adoption of APIs, the digital innovation as a result, and the inevitable risk management considerations that must be addressed to protect enterprises from an ever-growing avalanche of bad actors.
